The new feature of the Fall Expo. will sure be "some punkins."

Less than three weeks till the Fall Expo. Time, tide and Hillsboro street fairs wait for nobody. Get busy.

The Persimmon Ridge philosopher says it's funny women want the right to vote, in view of the fact that so few of 'em ever get old enough.

May sound funny but it's not much too early to figure on what you're going to have for your Thanksgiving dinner.

Do you suppose that Nesbit will be able to make the Klise supporters at the primary believe that "riffraff" is a complimentary term?

Prior to the primary Henry Nesbit said "I will receive the support of the decent people and Rev. J. W. Klise of the riffraff." The 71 that voted for Klise certainly will fall over themselves in their anxiety to vote for Nesbit in November.

Captain Sams, of the Second Kentucky regiment of the national guards, says the recent encampment at Frankfort was a "success from a military standpoint, but a failure socially." Can it be that some of the recruits cannot reverse? Horrors!

It is said that President Taft, on his coming swing through the West, will advise his hearers to elect to compress men who may be trusted to revise the tariff in accordance with the wishes of the ultimate consumer. This will be interpreted by almost every member of the Ohio congressional delegation as another cruel personal attack.—Ohio State Journal.

Editor J. A. Shanton, of the New Vienna Reporter has been nominated for mayor on the Republican ticket. Mr. Shanton would make a capable mayor. The good, live paper he gets out is sufficient indication of this. But how the editor of a country weekly could find time to do any mayoring between the multifarious duties of his present position is slightly beyond our comprehension.

Exposition Parade.

Preparations are being made for a great parade during the coming Exposition. It is hoped that the special prizes offered for the best arranged exhibit of farm products, in the line of parade, will interest many farmers throughout the county. The line of march will be as follows: Form on Walnut street, west of Elm, thence east on Walnut to High; north on High to Main; east on Main to East; north on East to North; west on North to High; south on High to Main; west on Main to West street, where the parade will disband.

A. W. Underwood is assisting the Wilmington Military Band at the Kennedy fair at that place.

A MENACE TO HEALTH.

EDITOR NEWS-HERALD: I noticed in the News-Herald of last week that the Board of Health had ordered Council to abate the nuisance caused by the sewer from the city building emptying into the branch at the foot of the South High street hill and that Council claimed that it was not within their province to take any action.

The emptying of the sewer at this place has been a menace to the health of the community for years, has made that section of the town undesirable for residence purposes and lessened the value of adjoining property. Certainly this being the case, there is some official that has authority to abate the nuisance and that the attempt of the Board of Health and Council each to attempt to throw the duty on the other is simply an attempt on the part of one or the other to evade a duty the welfare of the community demands be immediately performed. At times the stench arising from the sewer is so great as to nauseate those passing along the street. Any officers who fails to perform so plain a duty certainly is unfit to hold office as he clearly does not care about the welfare of the residents of the community.

SOUTH END RESIDENT.

DISGRACEFUL ACTIONS.

EDITOR NEWS-HERALD:—The action of a number of hoodlums at the De Vault-Newby wedding last Wednesday evening was disgraceful. At times during the performing of the ceremony by Rev. Beecher his voice was almost drowned by the loud talk and noise made by people congregated outside of the church.

The fact that most of this disturbance was made by young people is no excuse for to say that they did not know better is certainly a reflection on their parents and breeding, and further if they were too young to know how to behave themselves they certainly were too young to be away from home after dark. If any of this disturbance was caused by grown people they are certainly to be pitied for what is more disgusting and shows more plainly lack of intelligence, cultivation, education and good breeding than to make a show of one's self in public, and by so doing disturb a great many people. It does not hardly seem right to condemn such action, as people who will so conduct themselves surely have so little intelligence that they should only be pitied. A. L.

Resolution of Respect.

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father, to call home our beloved sister, Alma Selph, who has endeared herself to all by her lovely disposition and winning manner, it is fitting that we should thus express our sympathy; therefore,

Resolved, That we bear testimony to her Christian character, to her pure life and her willing and cheerful performance of every duty assigned her.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the bereaved family and friends, and mourn also our personal loss.

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days, that a copy of these resolutions be inserted in the minutes of our order, a copy be given to the family, and a copy be sent to the local papers.

Interesting Musicales.

During my two months sojourn in the Adirondack mountains I was once asked "What kind of a place is Hillsboro?" The question was unexpected; and I hesitated—but answered discreetly, I trust, that "It was like Chillicothe, one of the oldest historic towns of Southern Ohio." If I had reflected still farther, I should have added: "and a town which has produced unusual musical ability."

Last Friday evening at the Misses Murphy's was illustrated in a most happy juxtaposition the ability of Mr. Edward Meek, Mr. Philip Shawe, Mr. Henry Thompson, Mrs. Rives, Miss Sarah Murphy and Mrs. Gore—all Hillsboro born save Mrs. Gore. Added to this remarkable list was to have been the name of Miss Grace Gardner, soloist and composer, of New York reputation. Her absence was much regretted, as we who had heard her only one evening previous at the beautiful church wedding in the aria, "In Verdure Clad," were hoping to hear something equally fine.

The musicale was opened by Mr. Thompson and Mrs. Rives in "Don Pleumestra," piano and piccolo, showing the same marked ability which has been known to their friends through many years.

It was truly a joy to see and hear Mr. Edward Meek. In his nonchalant he reminds one of his youthful days when his hands wandered over the piano keys irrespective of thorough bass, but never of harmony. In his maturer years his voice has gained and his knowledge of the piano enlarged and he represents, most interestingly, music as a fine art.

As to Mr. Philip Shawe and his Sarah Murphy, she in her exquisite accompaniment and he in his mellow richness of voice and beautiful utterance of poetic thought set to music, impelled their audience to cast a "backward glance," like the girl in Lowell's poem, and exclaim, "Aufwiederseh'n!"

Mrs. Gore, although not Hillsboro born, represents a culture and pathos most pleasing in her voice and possesses a quality for which musicians are not renowned—unselfish service.

The musicale was given in honor of Mrs. Edward McKee, of Chillicothe, who in former years belonged to Hillsboro's musical coterie.

I am sure all feel indebted to the Misses Murphy for this hospitable evening seasoned so well with high art.

Young People's Rally Day.

Next Sunday, September 19, is Christian Culture Day in the Baptist denomination. The first Baptist church of Hillsboro will celebrate the day with a grand rally by the B. Y. P. U. We are most fortunate in securing the services of Rev. E. A. Read, of Granville, General Secretary of the Baptist Young People's Union of Ohio, together with his talented wife, Mrs. E. A. Read, Ohio's Junior leader for that occasion. The services for the day will be as follows:

Sunday School at 9 a. m., regular church service at 1:30; address by Dr. Read on "The Training Work of the Church."

At 2:30 there will be a Junior rally and conference. Mrs. Read will be in charge. All girls and boys of fifteen years and under, together with older persons interested in Junior work, are urged to attend.

At 6 o'clock there will be a rally and conference of all young people. Secretary Read will lead the meeting.

At 7 o'clock will occur a general service for the public. Mrs. Read will make a short address on "The Work of Our Juniors," to be followed with an address on "The Personal Element in Church Success" by Dr. Read. Special music will be rendered at all of these services.

It is our desire to make this the greatest day in the interest of young people's work in the churches ever held in Hillsboro, and we not only invite the members of our own church and congregation but all others who are interested in this great movement to be present.

Started Fire With Kerosene.

Saturday morning while a Mrs. Garner, wife of a Greenfield barber, was starting a fire with kerosene, the can exploded, throwing the burning oil entirely over her, and she was burned from head to foot, dying in great agony Saturday evening. Mr. Garner was also badly burned in trying to extinguish the fire. Garner was a former resident of Washington C. H.

Dies Far From Home.

Samuel Douglass, a former resident of this vicinity, but for more than half a century located at Urbana, Ill., died at Butler Springs Sunday from apoplexy. Mr. Douglass was a retired farmer in comfortable circumstances, had been coming to Butler Springs every summer for several years past. He was 79 years of age. His son, George, also of Urbana, Ill., came on in response to a telegram and returned with the remains Monday evening.

Attention, Comrades!

The reunion of the 60th Regt. O. V. I. and 24th Battery O. L. A. will be held in Hillsboro, O., Thursday, Sept. 30, 1909.

Coming of the Halley Comet.

The visit to our immediate neighborhood of the Halley comet, which appears to our observation but once in seventy-six years, is a matter which will interest many millions of people in America this fall and the coming spring. This comet was named after Edmund Halley, who in 1682 first discovered it to be a periodical visitor and predicted its return. It is a very spectacular comet, indeed, and will be visible to the naked eye in the northern hemisphere about February, 1910. The telescopes will have discovered it long before that time, however, and, perhaps even before this notice appears in print. In the Technical World Magazine for October there is a very interesting story of the discovery of this comet and of Halley's prediction of its return, together with a comparison of its orbit and its appearance with those of other known comets.

Rev. Charles Barrett, of Clay City, Ind., after a short visit with his aunt, Mrs. W. J. Herron, returned home Monday.

Fred Kautz, of Georgetown, raised a head of cabbage that measured 41 inches in circumference and weighed 18 pounds.

A box supper will be given at Dallas next Saturday evening, Sept. 18. Proceeds for the benefit of the Epworth League. All invited.

John Dawson, of Uniontown, Pa., after an extended visit at the home of his uncle, Capt. H. C. Dawson, returned home Friday.

William Newman and Miss Ethel Charles were married Sunday morning at the residence of John Naylor, Rev. J. W. Shade officiating.

The Business Men's Club and the Hillsboro Military Band will probably make a trip over the C. & C. traction line to Norwood and intermediate stations some time next week to advertise the Fall Exposition.

An announcement from Cleveland says that Richards & Bull, printers, designers and engravers, will be located in new quarters at 113 St. Clair avenue Sept. 17. The senior member of the firm is John Richards, formerly of this place.

The B. & O.-S.-W. railroad has commenced extensive improvements for Blanchester and not a bit earlier than they were needed. The depot is to be removed to a point where the stock pens now are and will be remodeled. The Hillsboro branch is to be extended to the opposite side from the depot where the main track runs, thus separating the branch from the main track.

John Harned, of Xenia, is growing a variety of beans at his home which are certainly "string beans" with a vengeance. Some of them are said to be almost a yard long. He exhibited one the other day which measured over twenty-five inches and which contained eighteen beans. Mr. Harned remarked that this single pod contained more beans than he received as rations while at Chattanooga during the war.

J. B. Morris, of Circleville, met death Thursday evening of last week by sliding from a wheat rick to the ground, and striking upon a shovel which was standing against the rick, receiving injuries that proved fatal within a few hours. Morris was just twenty-two years of age and had attained considerable fame in athletics, having won three cups in the tract events at Chillicothe the Monday previous.

MRS. E. L. HUGHES.

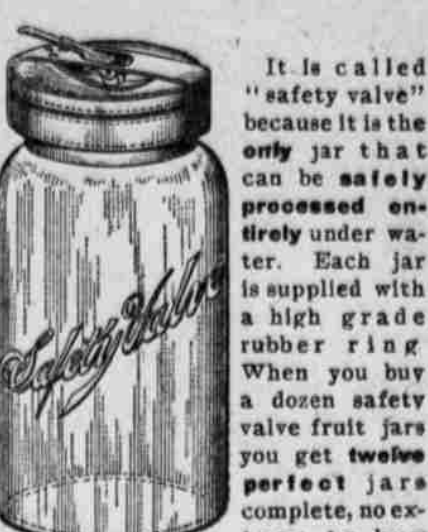

My wife was taken sick about six weeks ago. Our physicians said her lungs were affected, and advised us to take her to Colorado. She grew worse very rapidly, so August 7th two noted specialists examined her carefully. They pronounced her case quick consumption and told me positively that she could not live longer than ten days. Dr. M— said her body was just a mass of tubercles; that there was not a single square inch that did not have thousands of them. She had temperature of 104, no appetite, night sweats, chills and was delirious. August 8th she started taking Nature's Creation and responded, as if by magic. Her appetite improved, she slept sound, no more chills or night sweats, temperature and pulse normal. She is gaining strength very rapidly, and will no doubt soon be her old self. Very truly,
E. L. Hughes

April 9, 1909.—I am perfectly well and weigh more than I ever did in my life.
Mrs. E. L. Hughes

Mrs. Hughes is the daughter-in-law of the well known minister, Geo. F. Hughes, of Canal Winchester. If any one doubts the merits of this wonderful treatment they would not after talking to her. This fact statement appears in the booklet which we send about Nature's Creation. The booklet is sent upon request. The Nature's Creation Co., Bank Bldg., Town and High, Columbus.
